Customer Reviews

This is a small, pocket sized guide to Newfoundland. It is easy to use and covers a wide range of topics.

I would give this book to someone from Newfoundland & Labrador as a gift. It is chocked full of interesting tidbits about the history of the area and the current status. I purchased it because books on travel to the province are scarce and unfortunately, this one is not helpful in planning our trip. It certainly does not claim to be a travel book, I was just hopeful.

A rather loosely put-together compendium of facts about NL. Found it to be like reading a list. Some interesting information that proved useful for my first visit to see friends who live there.
