Customer Reviews

Most of the NYTimes crossword collections are not as easy as their competitors' puzzle books. There's a lot of esoteric questions that I really wouldn't consider "easy" in the four NYT books I have, and since I'm both an English and History major that's saying something about them and me, LOL. But for the NYT's, this collection was by far the easiest to complete without descending to the moronic. I like to switch between puzzle books, so I use the NYT puzzles as the more challenging and other publishers as my 'lazy/easy' ones. Consider yourself pre-warned: I enjoyed this book, but the next level up "easy NYT" books can be quite a bit more challenging.

The first book that I could actually work. I have spent a lot of time going through that book and enjoyed every moment.

Finally puzzles that challenge me, not frustrate me.

Still a challenge, but doable!

I love the puzzles challenging but doable the only thing I don't like is the format of the book I like a book that lays flat

Fun! Not too easy.. just right for my level. Some are more challenging than others, but that's what makes it addictive.

I bought these for my wife and she loves them, so i love them too.

Almost too easy, but a lot of fun at bedtime.
