The Agony And The Ecstasy

Synopsis

An inspirational story for anyone who thinks they are too old, too self-conscious, or too out of shape to compete with others - especially those younger and more fit.

Customer Reviews

This is not the book by Irving Stone. The title is designed to fool the customer. I guess we can use public-domain titles without consequences. I suppose "War and Peace" is next; then maybe "The Bible." This is an obvious attempt to get some poor fool to download this and pay $0.99, thinking it's the real thing. Shame on for allowing this.

I am furious. I hurriedly and excitedly purchased this just now, looking out at the Arno river and the Ponte Vecchio, thinking I was going to experience the literary medieval Florence while vacationing in modern Florence. Shame on for allowing this title to fool those of us who didn't read the fine print, and shame on me for not being more thorough.

This can't even be considered an article. If it was free and advertised correctly, I would maybe give it 3 stars for being barely humorous. No inspiration at all, simply a very short essay on a slow 5K and some bad underwear. Sorry to be harsh, simply should have been marketed better.

Listing this among legitimate kindle books is a travesty. I am asking for my money back. Even $0.99 is too much to line this person's pockets for using a deceptive variant of the title of a modern classic! should seriously consider barring this from their list of books.

This guy is using a famous title in the hopes that people in a hurry like me won't notice the different author.
