This is a great supplement to use for practice hypos and explaining difficult areas of property law. Out of all of the E&E books, this has been by far the most examples and is much more conceptual than usual. If you like E&E for in-depth coverage this may work well for you. The organization is very simple, going through several topics and then presenting examples of 3-8 lines with follow up explanations of the examples. That is the entire book, no checklists, flowcharts, or exam practice questions at the end. I used various supplements for this class. I will explain the supplements I used and how I studied for class and finals.
