Customer Reviews

This book is great for reviewing right before class and will be helpful when studying for exams. Every case in the casebook is included. The briefs are unlikely to be able to get you through a cold call, but can be helpful if you have already done the work or if you didn't read and want to still be able to follow some of the class discussion.

It is helpful for your first weeks as a law student, or if English is your second language, it helps you to understand better every case. However, I wouldn't recommend to use this book on a daily basis instead of the casebook.

Briefs of all the cases in the book. It is really good for reviewing the cases. Packaging was good, item shipped on time with no problem.

I liked having this while I read my cases because it's made for the casebook and it provided the proper rule of law that the casebook focused on.
