Wizard Card Game

Synopsis

More fun than Hearts and Rummy, award-winning Wizard is the Ultimate Game of Trump the whole family can enjoy. The rules are easy to learn -- the strategy adds an exciting challenge. In Wizard, players try to win the exact number of tricks they bid. The Wizard deck is similar to a regular deck of playing cards with the addition of four Wizards and four Jesters. Jesters always lose and Wizards always win. In the first round, players start out with one card. In the second round, players are dealt two cards, and so on, with each round becoming more challenging. When you make your exact bid, you earn points. If you take too many or too few tricks, you lose points. The special, custom Wizard Score Sheet helps players keep track of bids and points. Wizard Card Game can be played with 2-6 players. Instructions are in English, French, and Spanish.

We were introduced to this game about 2 years ago by a distant relative and have since hooked most of our immediate family. We play everytime we get together. At first it may be a little discouraging because you have to make your exact bid or you lose points, but once you get the hang of it the bidding becomes easier. My older kids (10 & 8) love it, but I would recommend it more for older kids and adults. There is also a website wizardcards.com you can register and play for free. Very fun, but I would get the cards first and learn how to play before going online.

Wizard is one of the greatest card games created and kids and adults of all ages can play. It is great for family and friend reunions or just a fun family night together. Everyone who has learned how to play the game is hooked. It has provided hours of fun and cries of disbelief in our family.

We love playing wizard. It's a combination of all trump type card games--but blind bidding is our favorite part. When you have only 3 players bidding gets interesting and fun! We haven't taught our kids yet but our oldest is 10 and we are ready to. We will try with our seven year old but I'm not sure if she will get the strategy yet.

All I know about this game is that I keep having to help my mother order another because she and her friends have worn out the cards from nightly play or she's found someone else she wants to give a set to. Haven't played it myself but it's very popular in her retirement community.

This is a great gift set for anyone who loves Wizards. Wizards is the funnest card game I've ever played - a great mix of luck and strategy for all ages. Once you start playing this game you can't stop. The gift set is lovely, very nice quality and provides great storage.

this is such an awesome game! it's the perfect game for four people! We play it all the time in my family, even lat at night in the tent when we're camping! it's the perfect game to take on long trips or just play at home!

I love this game. We take it into bars and are definitely the loud, obnoxious patrons that people glare at because it sucks you in and builds anticipation of winning... or losing.. dun dun dun! I also bought a second set to take with us for cabin outings or other trips. Fun game for everyone and pretty easy to learn.

The card game, Wizard, is a big hit with our family and we play it whenever we have time together. We're doing our best to introduce it to our friends. In fact our recent purchase was to give some games away to friends.
