Customer Reviews

The Kalmus editions are reproductions of the 19th century Bach Gesellschaft edition. Because of these, there are some (not many) note errors, the ordering of pieces is not up-to-date, and there is some alto clef. However, if you are looking for an inexpensive edition of the Bach organ works that is fairly decent I would highly recommend this edition.

There were a few places where the pages had creased during printing, but not enough to be of any concern. Will consider getting another volume.
