Customer Reviews

Who is this guy kidding?! EASY? HA! My husband, who does the crossword puzzles in the new your times couldn't figure out some of them. These are supposed to be EASY....for beginners. I will say, though, that I bought some later editions V VI, VII etc and apparently this guy realized that his puzzles were just too hard to be classified as "easy". The later editions are fun and do require some thought but they are doable and very enjoyable.

I liked the theme divisions. Some of the puzzle books give clues that have no relation to reality. The elderly would find this book more in keeping with their intention to spend an entertaining hour, and also a relaxing one not as unrelated to their life experiences as some puzzles.

I get these crossword puzzle books for my elderly friend. I know it says easy print- bit it was too easy. If you are looking for a very easy book for a beginner this would be good. It was not what we were looking for. I sent it back

Crossword puzzles have been my favorite past time since my early teens. As I grew older the print got smaller so I found another past time until my daughter gave me my first large print crossword puzzles. So at the age of 73 I can still do my puzzles because the large print is easy on the eyes!

I love doing crossword puzzles. But I find most crossword puzzles frustratingly hard. These crosswords are just the right mix of easy and moderate.

I had purchased the fourth in the series and really liked it. The third in the series leaves a lot to be desired.
