Jesse, and I can't help but love him, pretty much sums up the "essence" of the Kingdom of God in this book, and that is that God is a good, not bad, god. God is a god who love, not hate, us. God is a god who heals us, not make us sick.

I thoroughly enjoyed this book. The time I took to read it was well spent. Anyone that enjoys reading would enjoy this book ... Christian or not ... that's my recommendation.

If you want to walk in all that God has for you, this is one of the books that will assist you. This along with the Word of God will provide the answers you are looking for.

Jesse Duplantis does it again with his simple down to earth teaching, brings the truth of Gods to us so that we can walk it out.

Inspirational - Keeps me shaking & baking

I understand that as a minister, Jesse Duplantis is inspirational, not necessarily a scholar of any kind. But it seems before writing a book with this title and focus, you could spend about thirty seconds on the Internet and find out what the term "natural law" actually means in Christianity. As a moral guideline, natural law has a very long and honorable tradition, especially in Christian faith. This book confuses the issue. Even though Rev. Duplantis explains what HE means by natural law, that's not what natural law actually is. If anyone is actually interested in the topic, I would recommend either "Fifty Questions on the Natural Law: What It Is and Why We Need It," by Charles Rice, or "Written on the Heart: The Case for Natural Law," by J. Budziszewski. Both of the authors are also Christians.
