Customer Reviews

The product was amazing, as always, with anything by Mr. Keillor. The stories brought me back to family vacations to the Northeast; sleepy-time ventures in the car while my parents drove...

Garrison's voice is my favorite part about his stories. I also love that these are ONLY Lake Wobegone stories and have nothing to do with his whole radio show. (Lake Wobegone was always my favorite part anyway) :) Also, on a side note, the CD arrived on time and just as the seller said it would be. Two thumbs up. :)

THIS CD CAME QUICKLY & WAS PACKAGED WELL! I LOVE THIS CD & HOW WELL MY ORDER WAS COMPLETED! I'VE BEEN LISTENING TO THIS CD AT LEAST 3 TO 4 TIMES A DAY! OBVIOUSLY, I LOVE THIS CD! I'M THRILLED TO BE ABLE TO PURCHASE IT AGAIN! THANKYOU, SINCERELY GLORIA-- ;)

I bought this as a birthday gift for my son. I have the cassette tape set and he grew up listening to these stories and laughing over them with me. Now his son is that age and he wants to pass on the tradition. They have already begun listening and enjoyed these stories together. I never tire of hearing them and the entertaining way Garrison Keillor develops the characters and the interlinking narratives. My favorite on this season's stories is "Me and Choir."

I already had a copy of this at home, but I bought this second copy to use at school--primarily the "Letter from Jim" story, which deals with moral dilemmas. Of course, all of the stories are super because of Garrison Keillor's tremendous gift for storytelling. Can't go wrong on this one.

Clarence Bunsen has bad (i.e. extremely funny) day, involving static, cramped hand and fear of death, ending with his leaping from a tree to frighten some children and restoring his equilibrium. Only GK could combine all those elements in one of the seasonal CDs from LW. "Me and Choir" is also excellent.

We hated this. We tried to like it. We did. But after about 20 minutes we were starting to fall asleep at the wheel so we had to put something else on during our trip. Please, someone explain to me what makes this so famous?

this was a gift for my in-laws. They have a 4 hour drive to get to our house. this helps pass the time when you get board with the radio. really helps the time go by fast.

We love just about anything by garrison . This was no different.my husband complained about my audible books, so I got him this to listen to on the road.
