Customer Reviews

Looking for background for an upcoming trip to Montreal, I was fortunate to have come across Paul-Andre Linteau's book, which gave a wonderful historical perspective of the evolution of Montreal. Enjoyed the very early history up the 20th century, when there the problems and history of a great this N.American city were not unique. Would highly recommend and learned much regarding the French -English relationship over the centuries.

As the grandson of a French Canadien whose family has been in Lachine, Laval, and Montreal back to the 1660s I enjoyed reading about the growth and history of a great north American city.

Great info!!!

Poor with few insights. Wrote as an isolated city not as a part of Canada
