Synopsis

Quicken WillMaker Plus 2014 is the easiest way to create your estate plan, whether it's your first time or you want to update a previous plan. You'll be guided through the process from beginning to end with practical and relevant legal information so you can make the best decisions for you and your family.

- Create a customized estate plan with a Will, Health Care Directive, and other essential documents
- Documents reflect the laws of your state*
- Easy interview format lets you complete documents at your own pace
- User-friendly legal manual answers common questions

Quicken WillMaker Plus 2014 is the original will-writing software, written and updated regularly by Nolo's expert attorneys. Free legal updates will keep your program current through 2014. Technical support is also available.

New for 2014:

- Updated with new estate and gift law tax information
- Fillable Property Worksheet
- Plus, get a free living trust! Spare your family from the hassle and expense of probate court as they carry out your wishes. Quicken WillMaker Plus 2014 gives you free access to Nolo's Online Living Trust, a $169 value.

Here's a deeper look at what you can do with Quicken WillMaker Plus:

Your Will The heart of every estate plan is a will, also known as a last will and testament. This legal document puts you in control of who inherits your property and who would assume guardianship of your children if it were ever necessary. Without a will, state law will determine these issues. Your will allows you to name an executor (a personal representative) whose job it is to see that your wishes are carried out. And you can appoint a trusted person to manage property left to young people. With Quicken WillMaker Plus, you can revise and update your will whenever you like.

Your Health Care Directive Spares your loved ones difficult decisions by laying out your wishes for medical care and naming someone to carry those wishes.

Health Care Power of Attorney Permit a loved one to make important medical decisions for you if necessary.

Living Will Specify whether you want your life prolonged through artificial means in certain circumstances and set out your wishes about specific medical treatments and procedures.

Your Final Arrangements Plan a funeral or other ceremony and ease the burden on your loved ones. Describe your preferences for burial, cremation, memorials, obituaries, and more, and select someone to oversee your final arrangements.

Letter to Survivors NEW !! Use this letter to leave a final message to your loved ones. You can explain the gifts you left in your will, leave advice, divulge secrets, suggest ways of splitting shared gifts, or any other thoughts you'd like to leave behind.

Documents for Your Executor Make sure your executor has all the forms and instructions necessary to do the job: checklists, letters, notices, claim forms and more.

Information for Caregivers and Survivors Organize your estate so that your survivors don't have to. Use these documents to give them information about everything from bank accounts to the names of people you'd like contacted in the event of your illness or death. Personal Finance Documents Over a dozen forms let you handle common financial situations, such as lending money to friends or family, creating a bill of sale, and closing a credit card account. Home & Family Documents Practical forms you can use every day to help run your home and keep your family safe, including authorizations and agreements, promissory notes, limited powers of attorney, and child and elder care forms. *

Customer Reviews

First, if you're new to the Quicken WillMaker product line, you should be aware that although it's sold (by Nolo) as a stand-alone product, it really works more like an annual subscription product, because it won't get updated beyond 2014. You will not be forced to buy next year's version, and will be able to open and work on and print your existing files from 2014, but will not receive legal updates, which can occur often for some states and especially in these times of constant governmental interferences in private citizens' lives at all levels, unless you buy the 2015 version, which means your existing documents created by this program can contain legal mistakes in the future. Second, a few years ago Nolo made the anti-consumer decision of detaching the trust documents from the WillMaker product and offering as a "free" online product to buyers of this software. They claim you're getting a high value but in fact it used to be an integral part of WillMaker, plus the online trust maker will expire after one year, unless, again, you renew the subscription. This online component will really expire, as it happened to me. I do not see any reason to believe that this is the same case this time around. The WillMaker software itself comes with a large number of legal documents for estate planning and also a few everyday tasks. Central to the program, of course, is making a will as well as making a living will (i.e., healthcare directive). WillMaker's interface has, amazingly, not changed (read, not improved) since 10 or 12 years ago when I first started using it. It still goes through a screen-by-screen process which can get very boring and annoying because sometimes you have to figure out how to cross-reference materials in previous or future screens.
