Customer Reviews

This is it, it is very illustrious book with a lot of details, facts, names, relations and so on. Highly recommended to anyone who likes Scandinavia, Norway, Sweden, Vikings and middle ages.

For the history buff looking for accurate dates this is probably not for you. The author admits throughout the book the exact dates and in some cases the exact place is conjecture. Dates and places are still a reasonable time line though. The stories are very grippingly told, and you still learn a lot about the Norse. I found it worth reading.

If you have ancient ties to or merely an interest in early Norway, you will find this book interesting and informative.

Interesting...

Still reading this book, but I have to say it is interesting. Would recommend it to those that are history buffs.
