Customer Reviews

Not balanced for a DUET. The viola parts are very simplistic. I would call this more of a solo with an accompany than a duet. Very disappointed that this will not do for two students to be equally performing.

This is a great book with arrangements of very famous classical pieces for violin and viola. Some of the viola parts are open string quarter notes for the majority of the piece though, with a more complicated violin part. Some of the viola parts are decent though, but it's been working great for my students who have been playing 2-3 years.

The viola part is almost non-existent...just very boring half notes most of which are simply open strings.

The music is fun pieces that are easy to play. The binding makes it hard to stand by its own on a stand. Viola parts have very little of the the melodic line, but otherwise a good duet book
