While I find this book often gives an overly simplistic view of tort law, its clear and concise language can be a lifesaver during your 1L year. Our professor paired this book with a more in-depth casebook and I thought the two complimented each other nicely.

The classic book for understanding "what is a tort." Prof Glannon has a uniquely amusing approach to his "examples." This actually makes entertaining reading for the 'average Joe," and is in no way just a study-guide for law students. Try it and see!

Extremely helpful for first year law students or as review for the bar.

If you don't get this book, READ IT AGAIN, and AGAIN, and AGAIN until you get it. Once you get it, IT IS A TICKET TO YOUR "A" on the Torts exam. I personally, after the first reading of Duty Element, was somewhat there. However, after the second and third attempt, I got the Palsgraf, if you could understand what I mean. It feels like a break through. Good luck. VERY GOOD BOOK.

Saved me 1L year. Absolutely recommend this.
