Customer Reviews

'Poems about Cats' is a collection of, well, poems about cats. It's illustrated by Yasmine Surovec, the creator of Cat vs Human, and the drawings are really cute. There are a wide range of poems here from Ancient Egypt to nursery rhymes. There are works by William Blake, and Yeats and Shakespeare and Dickinson to name just a few. Edward Lear Curiously omitted is work by t.s. eliot, but perhaps that is cat ground already well trodden. There are illustrations for every poem, although in ebook form, these are sometimes cut off on a two page format. At 98 pages, it feels a bit light, but the illustrations are lovely. If you need a small gift book for a cat fancier, I suppose you could do worse than a volume of poems about cats with lovely illustrations. I received a review copy of this ebook from Andrews McMeel Publishing and NetGalley in exchange for an honest review. Thank you for allowing me to review this ebook.

Illustrated by Ysmine Surovec (author and illustrator of Cat Vs Human), POEMS ABOUT CATS is a collection of various cat poems. The poems include famous nursery rhymes and texts from Ancient Egypt. Yeats, William Blake, Shakespeare, Emily Dickinson, and Christina Rossetti all made the cut, but there's nothing from that famed T.S. Eliot book of poems, OLD POSSUM'S BOOK OF PRACTICAL CATS. The illustrations are just like the ones in the Cat Vs Human books. In terms of poetry, it's kind of a wide selection. However, people who enjoy poetry really aren't the ones that will be purchasing this book. This is a book pretty much just for cat lovers.

This book is compiled of existing cat poems by various authors, and Yasmine From the cat vs human comics/blog illustrates cute drawings that go with them. It's a very cute and enjoyable book that is pleasing to the eye, and a great coffee table book for the cat lady in all of us. I actually read the poems to my newborn!

*I received an advance copy in exchange for an unbiased review.*This is a delightful collection of poems about cats, illustrated by the wonderful creator of the Cat Vs. Human webcomic. The choice of poems is broad, and the illustrations perfectly suited. They're not just little marginal illustrations, either; in one sense, I might describe this as a book of graphic poems, in the vein of a graphic novel. It would make a lovely gift!
