Customer Reviews

The biography contains legends in it. The one I found was that he "studied with the great composer Franz Liszt". He made that up to please his father, who provided for the trip to France. The music is good, though and just for the music I would give a good 5 stars. The contents are: Rooster Minuet from Sonata (kind of typical classicalish) Malaguena, Serenata and Capricho Catalan from Espana (Capricho sounds like typical classicalish) Preludio from Cantos de Espana (which is a copy of his Leyendas from his 1st Suite Espanola) Iberia selections Travel Memories Shining Tiles (completed by Granados) And a few more.
