So You Want To Be A Radio Host

Synopsis

Ann White is the founder of The Creating Calm Network, a global multi-media broadcast group. She works with radio hosts and wannabe radio hosts; she produces radio programs. With this background, White answers the common questions, concerns and fears of soon to be or wannabe radio hosts. She is joined by some of the inspiring hosts of The Creating Calm Network to share the in's and out's of radio hosting. Fun, funny, practical, informative and encouraging - So You Want to Be a Radio Host is a must read for all new radio personalities.

Customer Reviews

This is a fun, quick-read book for anyone who dreams of their message being heard all over the world. It really is Radio Host 101 and gives you a rock-solid foundation on all that you need to focus on before you start your radio show. There are tips, tricks and tools from hosts who are currently online...so this is the real deal! How do you pick a topic for your radio show? How do you develop confidence as an interviewer? When do you slow the pace and when do you pick up? How do you attract the best guests? All this and more...at $0.99!! Buy it...NOW!

Beautifully written, clear and concise. All of the details needed for anyone interested in hosting their own radio program in today's market.

Wasn't exactly what I was looking for. Need actual tips and guidelines, not a site that wants you to become part of their community.
